Trainer's Manual for the IEP Training John Wiley & Sons

Few of us were around in the 1970's when Martinson published his treatise, often referred to as "Nothing Works." Martinson's treatise spawned a great deal of reactionary research that quickly dispatched the "Nothing Works" treatise. In fact, Martinson's data was reanalyzed and even his data showed that some rehabilitation interventions reduce recidivism. Thanks to the research of Gendreau, Ross, Cullen, Andrews, Logan, Bailey, Palmer and many others, we no longer need to address the question, What Works...to reduce recidivism? We now ask the question, What Works with Whom. In other words, the focus of rehabilitation research is now aimed at developing the Risk-Need-Responsivity Model. For those working with conduct disordered youth in a residential setting, here's what the research says. The research says you must keep youths safe and once you have established a safe environment, you can use evidence based interventions designed to reduce the youths' risk for reoffenses. Keeping youths safe is the primary goal of the Limit & Lead Behavior Management Training Program. The Limit & Lead Program also has a cognitive behavioral component designed to reduce recidivism, Limit & Lead Student Workbook. This manual is the Training for Trainer's Manual. It is used to train individuals to become trainers for the Limit & Lead Behavior Management Training Program. This manual is actually one of three manuals used to implement the Limit & Lead Behavior Management Training Program. The other two behavior management manuals are the Direct Care and Security Staff Trainee's Handout and the Direct Care and Security Staff Trainer's Manual. When all three manuals are used together, it is possible to establish a consistent, measurable, agency-wide behavior management program. Decades of research about programming for conduct disordered youths shows that consistency is key. In order to have an effective behavior management program, all behavior management staff and supervisors must be trained in the same model and be monitored using meaningful criteria. The Limit & Lead Behavior Management Training Program affords all that and much more. All of the Limit & Lead workbooks and manuals have one overarching goal: No More Victims! You can review all of the Limit & Lead materials by visiting <http://www.amazon.com>. You may also contact Dr. Ferrara directly by email: mferraraphd@att.net

The Art of Training Delivery (Second Edition) Simon and Schuster
 We live in a broken world.

And the gospel is how God puts broken people back together again. Once we repent and believe in Jesus, God's Spirit helps us recover and pursue His design. God is the one who created the world and every human being in it. Authors Jimmy Scroggins and Steve Wright outline a reproducible method of sharing the gospel that has been tested in the real world. Turning Everyday Conversations Into Gospel Conversations is a simple strategy to train new and seasoned believers to join God in His reconciliation work. Turning Everyday Conversations Into Gospel Conversations equips believers to use the innovative "3 Circles," a user-friendly evangelistic tool for a new generation. Scroggins and Wright train readers to incorporate the biblical metanarrative, as well as our own personal stories, to tell the good news that Jesus has made a way out of the broken places we find ourselves. Churches around the world are training people to share the gospel using this method. It has proven appeal across generations and cultures. They've heard stories about an 8-year-old boy leading his 26-year-old cousin to repent and believe in Jesus and a 70-plus-year-old church member, who had never before shared his faith, leading his Spanish-speaking neighbor to Christ. It's been used to train the Mixtec in Mexico, Maasai Warriors in Kenya, and prisoners in America. It's been presented on napkins, in concrete, in the sand, and using tortillas. The 3 Circles work, and this book will train you and your church members to use it. It doesn't matter if you have been a Christian for decades or days, you can learn to do what God asks us to do—to make His appeal to others through us (2 Cor. 5:20). This short training manual will empower and inspire millions of Christians to turn hundreds of millions of everyday conversations into gospel conversations.
