CRY UNCLE! A Story of Family Bonds by Allan Schwartz and Hyacinthe Kuller Baron There was only a five year difference between them when 13 year old Allan (Allie) Schwartz came to live with his sister, brother-in-law and 8 year old niece, Hyacinthe (Honey) Kuller. A bond was formed between a young uncle and niece that was broken for more than 50 years. This is the story that could only have been written because of the internet. The book traces the brilliant careers of the Supermarket Executive and Master Artist and inspires by its documentation of a generation of individuals who grew up with nothing, made their own way and gave everything to their children who became millionaires and successful entrepreneurs. This book is for that generation so that they may know the stories and understand the fortitude and determination that is their heritage.

A timeless selection of writings from India's best-loved author I know the world's a crowded place, And elephants do take up space, But if it makes a difference, Lord, I'd gladly share my room and board. A baby elephant would do . . . But, if he brings his mother too, There's Dad's garage. He wouldn't mind. To elephants, he's more than kind. But I wonder what my Mum would say If their aunts and uncles came to stay! Ruskin Bond has regaled generations of readers for decades. This delightful collection of poetry, prose and non-fiction brings together some of his best work in a single volume. Sumptuously illustrated, Uncles, Aunts and Elephants: Tales from Your Favourite Storyteller is a book to treasure for all times.

Time with My Uncle is a book about a special bond that develops between a child (birth to toddler) and his Uncle. Reading this story will remind you that everyday activity, seemingly uneventful, has the capacity to capture the heart of a child and melt the heart of an adult. My hope is that this book will be purchased as a gift for a child to give to his uncle, or a parent/friend/relative to give to the uncle for, perhaps, Father's Day, his birthday, or as a gift through the holidays to celebrate this endearing relationship.

In this erudite and gracefully written ethnography, Mariane Ferme explores the links between a violent historical and political legacy, and the production of secrecy in everyday material culture. The focus is on Mende-speaking southeastern Sierra Leone and the surrounding region. Since 1990, this area has been ravaged by a civil war that produced population displacements and regional instability. The Underneath of Things documents the rural impact of the progressive collapse of the Sierra Leonean state in the past several decades, and seeks to understand how an even earlier history is reinscribed in the present.

What a family! Simple and complex, traditional and modern, religious and rational, money-minded and money-renouncing, Indian and international, fiercely individualistic and inspiringly loyal' -P. Lal In a life spanning nine decades Krishna Kumar Birla, son of the legendary Ghanshyam Das Birla, witnessed events that shaped India in the twentieth century and had close associations with iconic figures like Mahatma Gandhi, Madan Mohan Malviya, Jayaprakash Narayan, Jawaharlal Nehru and Indira Gandhi. Head of one of India's leading business houses, K.K. Birla embraced principles in which the creation of wealth, philanthropy and political leadership were all regarded as part of nation-building. Written in a style that is simple and translucent in its sincerity, Brushes with History brings alive an important era in the life of the nation, its changing social mores, evolving principles of corporate governance and enduring family values In an affectionate and moving tribute, K.K. Birla's daughter, Shobhana Bhartia, acquaints readers with her father's spiritual strength and moral values which were an integral part of his life.

Uncles, Aunts and Elephants

Represents the gleanings from some three hundred thousand verses of old French poetry, comprising nearly all the published epics through the 13th century.

The Underneath of Things

This is a critical history of spy fiction, film and television in the United States, with a particular focus on the American fictional spies that rivaled (and were often influenced by) Ian Fleming's James Bond. James Fenimore Cooper's Harvey Birch, based on a real-life counterpart, appeared in his novel The Spy in 1821. While Harvey Birch's British rivals dominated spy fiction from the late 1800s until the mid-1930s, American spy fiction came of age shortly thereafter. The spy boom in novels and films during the 1960s, spearheaded by Bond, heavily influenced the espionage genre in the United States for years to come, including series like The Man from U.N.C.L.E. and Matt Helm. The author demonstrates that, while American authors currently dominate the international spy fiction market, James Bond has cast a very long shadow, for a very long time.
