Apprendre à parler est l'une des réalisations les plus visibles et les plus importantes de la petite enfance. La langue signifie un nouvel outil qui offre de nouvelles façons de comprendre l'environnement social de connaître le monde et de partager des expériences sous forme de satisfactions et de besoins. Au cours des trois premières années d'école les enfants font un autre grand pas dans le développement de la langue et apprennent ainsi à lire. Bien que les deux domaines soient différents ils sont également liés. Les compétences linguistiques initiales ont été associées aux succès ultérieurs en lecture. De même les activités de préalphabétisation et alphabétiques peuvent aider les enfants à acquérir des compétences linguistiques à la fois pendant leurs années préscolaires et plus tard à l'école. Les enfants malentendants et malentendants souffrent souvent de troubles de la parole. Développer le vocabulaire des enfants pour développer les compétences linguistiques et d'alphabétisation est essentiel. nécessaire pour réussir à l'école. Les adultes dans la vie d'un enfant jouent un rôle important en aidant un enfant à apprendre de nouveaux mots. Jouez à ces jeux de cartes bilingues avec 600 images tous les jours et discutez de la signification des mots pour enrichir le vocabulaire de votre enfant. Ces 600 cartes de vocabulaire contiennent des numéros d'alphabet des formes d'animaux des fruits et légumes de la maison etc. Elles vous permettent non seulement d'améliorer le vocabulaire de leurs enfants mais également de les aider à reconnaître l'alphabet tel qu'il est épilé et plus facile à prononcer. Ces jeux de cartes ont pour but d'aider les jeunes enfants y compris ceux qui risquent de subir des retards linguistiques tels que l'autisme de développer les meilleures compétences linguistiques et linguistiques possibles. Il convient également aux enfants de 3 à 8 ans quel que soit leur niveau d'anglais langue seconde ainsi qu'aux adultes se préparant à l'examen.
