Transformations et innovations
 économiques et sociales en Europe :
 quelles sorties de crise ? vol.2 Рипол
 Классик

Cet ouvrage présente cent thèmes importants des sciences économiques sous forme de fiches synthétiques, claires et structurées. Cette troisième édition d'un " classique " permettra aux élèves de classes préparatoires aux concours des grandes écoles commerciales et aux étudiants de premier cycle universitaire, mais aussi aux lycéens et au grand public, de disposer d'un outil indispensable pour acquérir les notions de base et maîtriser l'exposé des mécanismes économiques.

The studies in this book deal with the determination of foreign exchange rates and the characteristics of the foreign exchange market. Analysis is made of flexible exchange rates through an approach developed by the authors, called the 'asset-market approach'. Theory is combined with practical application in a clear concise way that will be understood by readers with a basic understanding of economics.

Les bases juridiques et économiques de l'assurance privée Cambridge University Press

This volume, edited by Michel A. Dessart and Roland E. Ubogu, records the presentations made and discussions held during the Inaugural Seminar of the Joint Africa Institute (JAI). The JAI was established in Abidjan, Côte d'Ivoire, by the African Development Bank, the IMF, and the World Bank to meet the pressing training needs of the African continent. The participants discussed four main topics: the changing role of the state, governance, and new capacity requirements; the challenge of achieving macroeconomic stability in Africa; the requirement for capacity building in Africa; and the role of international financial institutions in capacity building in Africa. The seminar was held in November 1999, but the topics and recommendations of the seminar remain current and of particular importance today. The seminar was held in English and French, and both language versions are contained in this volume. 240 pp. 2001

Stefan Wengler provides a well founded answer to the question of the economic value and shows the need for the implementation of key account management. He presents a comprehensive, but easy-to-handle decision-making model that supports the decision on the most efficient key account management organization for individual companies. In addition, he gives a comprehensive overview on the key account management conception and its controlling tools.

This book explores the creation and career of the French Constitution of 1795, operative from the start of the Directory until Napoleon's takeover in 1799. It explores the composition, history and replacement of the French Revolution's third Constitution through a focus on the speeches and writings of four sets of political voices discernible in late 1790s France. The four main chapters present these voices as Thermidorians, Conservatives, Republicans and Brumairiens. They reveal the intensity and breadth of the debates generated by the permanent tension between the Constitution and the many ongoing conflicts of the Revolution. Set within and beyond the government and the two legislative chambers, the debates feature numerous conflicts central to the French Revolution including the composition and functions of the public powers, the legitimacy of exceptional laws, the regulation of the press and freedom of religion. This sustained focus on the relationship between the political nation and the Constitution provides a fresh reading of the political culture of the Directory.

Dechêne's work, when first published, constituted a major milestone in the development of methodology and use of sources. Her systematic examination of difficult and massive documentary collections blazed a number of new trails for other researchers. Her judicious blending of numerical data and "qualitative" findings makes this book one of the rare examples of "new history" that avoids the extremes of statistical abstraction and anecdotal antiquarianism. Habitants and Merchants in Seventeenth-Century Montreal won the Governor-General's Award and the Garneau Medal from the Canadian Historical Association when it first appeared in French.

This volume is a collection of studies which presents new analyses of the nature and scale of Roman agriculture in the Mediterranean world from c. 100 BC to AD 350. It provides a clear understanding of the fundamental features of Roman agricultural production through studying the documentary and archaeological evidence for the modes of land exploitation and the organisation, development of, and investment in this sector of the Roman economy. Moving substantially beyond the simple assumption that agriculture was the dominant sector of the ancient economy, the volume explores what was special and distinctive about it, especially with a view of its development and integration during a period of expansion and prosperity across the empire. The papers exemplify a range of possible approaches to studying and, within limits, quantifying aspects of Roman agricultural production, marshalling a large quantity of evidence, chiefly archaeological and papyrological, to address important questions of the organisation and performance of this sector in the Roman world.

Insurance is a legal, an actuarial and a financial product, and it is one out of many risk management strategies. It follows that its history can only be studied in the broader context of the development of such strategies, applying an interdisciplinary approach. The theme of the present volume is maritime risk management. After an overview over the history of insurance, the contributions to the present volume examine different maritime risk management strategies by adopting a variety of methodological approaches. Some contributions focus on normative provisions, others contrast practice with legal scholarship, or focus on the emergence of insurance companies as opposed to individual insurers. Again, other contributions give insights in marine insurance practice in specific cities or analyse insurance practice through the lens of specific insurance litigation. As to the time frame, the different contributions span from antiquity to the nineteenth century.

Restructurations, suppression d'emplois, licenciements boursiers, atteintes à l'environnement, délocalisations, parachutes dorés, falsifications des comptes..., l'entreprise a souvent une mauvaise image. Comment peut-elle cautionner ces pratiques qui nuisent à la société dans son ensemble tout en créant de nouveaux biens et services grâce à la mise en commun des compétences les plus diverses de ses salariés ? Ces contradictions questionnent la finalité de l'entreprise. Celle-ci doit-elle favoriser avant tout l'enrichissement des actionnaires ? Ou son but est-il d'abord de produire des biens et des services qui répondent à des besoins ? En examinant ces objectifs conflictuels, cet ouvrage interroge les fondements de l'entreprise. Rassemblant les études sociologiques, économiques et juridiques réalisées à ce propos, Daniel Bachet ouvre une nouvelle perspective. Pour desserrer l'étau du rendement financier à court terme et se tourner vers des formes d'organisation plus démocratiques et plus efficaces, il est indispensable de distinguer deux entités : la société au sens juridique, représentant les actionnaires, et l'entité économique, avec ses salariés, ses fournisseurs et ses sous-traitants. Il sera alors possible d'atteindre un meilleur équilibre des pouvoirs entre ces deux instances grâce à des outils de gestion qui ouvrent la perspective d'une nouvelle logique économique favorisant le travail et l'emploi.

This book outlines the history of the Black International, a secret organisation, directly linked to the Vatican, which brought together the leaders of the Catholic committees in nine European countries. The organisation tried to stem the tide of liberalism, socialism and nationalism that threatened the Catholic Church at the end of the 19th century. The story of the origins, workings and ending of this International at times seems like a detective story. The book offers an extensive discussion of the influence of this organisation on the press policy and the international position of the Vatican. It also explores its impact on the development of militant Catholicism and, through its after-effects in the Union of Fribourg (1884-1891) on the emergence of social Catholicism in Europe.

L'Internationale noire était une association secrète qui groupait les chefs de file des comités catholiques de neuf pays européens. Elle essaya de faire front contre les trois courants qui menaçaient l'Eglise catholique à la fin du XIXe siècle: le libéralisme, le socialisme et le nationalisme. Cette Internationale noire dépendait directement du Vatican.

Analysant l'histoire de la naissance, du fonctionnement et de la dissolution de cette organisation secrète, le présent ouvrage ressemble quelquefois à un roman policier. Il accorde également une grande attention à l'influence exercée par ce réseau sur la politique de presse et sur la politique internationale du Vatican. Enfin, il évalue son impact sur le développement du catholicisme militant puis, à travers son prolongement dans l'Union de Fribourg (1884-1891), sur la percée du catholicisme social en Europe.

Immanuel Wallerstein's highly influential, multi-volume opus, The Modern World-System, is one of this century's greatest works of social science. An innovative, panoramic reinterpretation of global history, it traces the emergence and development of the modern world from the sixteenth to the twentieth century. Lois municipales et économiques du Languedoc Presses universitaires de Rouen et du Havre

For the past twenty years feminist grass-root movements, professionals, and researchers have shown how the social construction of gender relations interacts with all forms of imperialism to mould the dominant ideologies of development. Based on a constant dialogue between theory and practice, research and action, their analyses of society and international development begin with women's experience and aim at policies and actions directed toward social change and the empowerment of women.

The Cambridge Platonists in Philosophical Context Armand Colin

The Cambridge Platonists were defenders of tolerance in the political as well as the moral sphere ; they held that practical judgment came down in the last instance to individual conscience ; and they laid the foundations of our modern conceptions of conscience and liberty. But at the same time they maintained the existence of eternal truths , and of a Good-in-itself , identical with Truth and Being, refusing to admit that freedom of conscience implied moral relativism. They were critics of dogmatism, and of the sectarian notion of "enthusiasm" as a source of illumination , on the grounds that both were disruptive of social harmony; they pleaded the cause of reason , in the hope that it could become the foundation of all human knowledge . Yet , for all that , they maintained that a certain sort of mystical illumination lay at the heart of all true thought , and that human reason had validity only in virtue of its divine origin . They debated with Descartes and took a keen interest in his mechanism and his dualism ; they brought the atomistic theories of Democritus back into repute; and they sought to provide a detailed account of the causality linking all phenomena.

Au-delà des tentatives de spécification pionnières, l'analyse théorique de la firme a connu une inflexion significative depuis près d'un demi-siècle. Mais, si son objet commun est alors de tenter de dépasser les limites du modèle standard, elle n'en apparaît pas moins largement différenciée. Fort de ce constat, l'ouvrage s'efforce dès lors de spécifier les divergences de principes (en termes d'hypothèses de base et donc en termes de champ - analyse de la sphère de l'échange ou de la sphère de la production - et d'objet d'analyse - étude des problématiques d'existence, de périmètre et/ou de structure de la firme) des théories économiques en présence, mais aussi la dynamique de leurs interactions.

This is the fourth volume of the "Hague Yearbook of International Law," which succeeds the Yearbook of the Association of Attenders and Alumni of the Hague Academy of International Law. The title "Hague Yearbook of International Law" reflects the close ties which have always existed between the AAA and the City of The Hague with its international law institutions and indicated the Editors' Intention to devote attention to developments taking place in those international law institutions, viz. the International Court of Justice, the Permanent Court of Arbitration, the Iran-United States Claims Tribunal and the Hague Conference on Private International Law. This volume contains in-depth articles on these developments and summaries of (aspects of) decisions rendered by the International Court of Justice, the Permanent Court of Arbitration and the Iran-United States Claims Tribunal. In addition, the 1991 volume contains the papers of the Thirty-fourth AAA Congress held in Montreal on "Regional Economic Integration" and "Property Rights in International Law."
